

Tent Rules

It is important before you embark on your camping adventure to make very strict rules about the tent. Some rules may include:

no food in the tent

bedding and clothes must be kept neat and tidy bedding must be aired out each day (except if it rains) children must play outside or in the dining tent during the day but not in the sleeping tent all zippers must be kept closed to ensure that everyone will have a bug free nights sleep